

We would like to give a big thanks to Richard Carlstedt for making these drawings available to all who may be interested. The drawings represent years of research and hard work by Richard. This research, his resulting model Monitor engine, and Richard's many other projects has rightfully earned Richard Carlstedt recognition as one of the all time great model engineers.

These drawings are copyright protected and are provided for personal use only.